Prayer for Pentecost

50 days after Easter Sunday marks the day the Christian Calendar celebrates as Pentecost Sunday. (24th May). During these 50 days this year Christians across the island of Ireland will be praying for a fresh move of the Holy Spirit, setting alarms at 3 separate times each day - 09:00; 12:00; 18:00.

At those times wherever they are and whatever they are doing people will be pausing for a moment (either individually or with friends and family) and simply praying the prayer below:

'Holy Spirit – you are the One the Father promised, the very breath of God;
the One who reveals to us the beauty of Jesus.

Come again in your gentleness,

Come again in your wildness.

You are so welcome in our hearts, in your church, in our land.

Come Holy Spirit!'

Cards with the prayer are available in the foyer.

A Missional Conversation: An evening for young adults (18+) of food, worship, conversation and teaching on being a Missional Church
